

Wisconsin Association of Professional Agricultural Consultants

2011 Scholarship Application for students enrolled at UW Madison Platteville, River Falls, and Stevens Point

Purpose: In order to promote agricultural consulting as a profession that is important to the economy and environment in Wisconsin and to advance the science of agriculture in general, the Wisconsin Association of Professional Agricultural Consultants (WAPAC) has established a scholarship program for students enrolled in a production oriented and/or applied research (crop or livestock) degree program.

Amount of Scholarship: Two $500 scholarships will be awarded in 2011.

Deadline for Application: November 11, 2011. Scholarship recipients will be notified by mid December.

Qualifications:

- Eligible students must be currently enrolled as an undergraduate and must have career goals that would benefit significantly from participating in an internship related to production agriculture or applied research. Majors in production agriculture (crop and/or livestock) are preferred
- The student must have been enrolled the previous summer in an internship that was production related.
- This scholarship is based on merit and not on financial need. A WAPAC Scholarship award may only be given to an individual one time.

Application Procedure: Interested students can obtain an application form from their scholarship coordinator or it may be obtained from Bryan Jensen (bmjense1@facstaff.wisc.edu) or from the WAPAC website <http://www.wapac.info>

Additionally, students must obtain a written letter of recommendation from their internship employer. The letter of recommendation can either be submitted with the scholarship application or mailed under separate cover from the employer. Mail one copy of all relevant materials (application, official grade transcript or a clear and easily readable unofficial copy of grade transcript & letter of recommendation) by the November 11, 2011 deadline to:

Carla Hargrave
WAPAC Executive Secretary
N7823 State Road 49
Berlin, WI 54923
